

Media Release

Senator Alan Eggleston

Liberal Senator for Western Australia

13 May 2008

Estimates expose cracks in Labors plan for the bush

Only one week into the 2008 budget estimates and already the cracks are showing in Kevin Rudd's budget for working families.

WA Liberal Senator Alan Eggleston said the estimates are an opportunity for the Government to justify their policy decisions in their recent budget, however Kevin Rudd's Minister's have been left stumped when asked to explain their treatment of rural and regional communities.

Ends